

DIALOGUE SESSION

The Political Economy of the Intractable Conflict in Syria

14 April 2022 | 5:00pm

Alois Wagner Saal, Centrum für Internationale Entwicklung
Sensengasse 3, 1090 Vienna

The dialogue session focusses on the catastrophic effects of the eleven years of conflict in Syria, including the further deterioration of living and economic conditions despite the decline in the intensity of military operations and the relative stability of controlled areas by the dominant powers. The speakers will discuss institutionalized violence, consolidated dependency, and wasted human potential in the absence of prospects for a just and sustainable political solution.

Speakers:

Omar Dahi: Professor at Hampshire College, Director at the Security in Context Initiative

Rabie Nasser: Project Leader, KnowWar II, University of Vienna

Chair:

Klaudia Wieser: KnowWar II, University of Vienna

The dialogue session will be held in English. Please register here: klaudia.wieser@univie.ac.at
